

CONTACT:
Tony Arnold
+82-010-8659-9049 (Korea cell)
Tony.Arnold@uscm.org

MEDIA ADVISORY**

MISSIONS EVENT GETS WIRED: CAMPUS MISSION 2007 ONLINE VIA STREAMING VIDEO

Internet Users Worldwide can Join 15,000 Students for One of the Largest Global Student Missions Events in History

WHAT: Campus Mission 2007 (CM 2007) is one of the largest global student missions events in history. The conference, held at the Bexco Convention Center in Busan, South Korea, is sponsored by Campus Crusade for Christ, International.

The 15,000 students attending CM 2007 represent 127 nations—from Albania and Zimbabwe. More than 1,700 American students are expected to attend.

Main sessions of CM 2007 will be available online via streaming video. Visit www.CM2007.net.

WHEN: June 30 – July 5, 2007

WHO: Through CM2007, Campus Crusade for Christ will challenge and equip students to launch programs this year on 365 new campuses worldwide, where Christian communities do not currently exist. Keynote speakers will include:

- Steve Douglass, President, Campus Crusade for Christ, International
- Dr. Joon-Gon Kim, Founder, Korea Campus Crusade for Christ
- Sung-Min Park, National Director, Korea Campus Crusade for Christ
- Andy Atkins, National Director of the United Kingdom
- Michael Jaberaj, Director of Affairs, Campus Crusade for Christ, South Asia
- Austin Okomohwo, Director of Affairs, Campus Crusade for Christ, W. Africa
- Luther Awad, Campus Crusade for Christ, National Director of Egypt

Teams of students will travel from Korea to campuses in major cities around the world, including Tokyo, Budapest, Johannesburg, and Mexico City.

Founded in 1951, Campus Crusade for Christ International is served by 27,000 full-time staff working in 190 countries. Campus Crusade seeks to show people how to know and experience God's love and plan for their lives.